
Assignment Guidance Form

iUHB275 – Controlling risk in a trichology practice

Detail the risks to be considered when providing a trichology service

Understand the difference between a hazard and a risk in relation to the workplace and be able to identify the underlying factors in performing risk assessments, including:

- Differences between the terms 'risk' and 'hazard' when applied to the workplace
- Categories of hazards in terms of their type
- How risk is quantified and controlled in the workplace
- An explanation of the main reasons for performing a risk assessment
- An explanation of the procedure for following a risk assessment

Understand legislation that is relevant to the maintenance of health and safety in the workplace, including:

- An evaluation of the legislation that is relevant to the maintenance of health and safety in the workplace

Understand the classification of chemical substances and biological conditions relevant to the hair profession, including:

- An evaluation of the main chemical substances and biological conditions relevant to the hair profession and how their potential for risk can be managed

Demonstrate how to carry out a risk assessment in a clinical setting, including:

- A risk assessment in a trichology based clinical environment

Present your findings in any of the following formats, which may include some ICT:

- Written report
- Chart
- Other pictorial presentation

Document History

| Version | Issue Date | Changes | Role |
|---------|------------|-----------------|--|
| v1 | 25/09/2019 | First published | Qualifications and Regulation Co-ordinator |